SOLID FAITH: 10 CORE BELIEFS

3: UNIQUELY HUMAN

There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, arts, civilizations – these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub, and exploit – immortal horrors or everlasting splendors. Next to the blessed sacrament itself, your neighbor is the holiest object presented to your senses. If he is your Christian neighbor, he is holy in almost the same way, for in him also Christ vere latitat, the glorifier and the glorified, Glory Himself, is truly hidden.

-C. S. Lewis

PASS US NOT, O GENTLE SAVIOR

CROSBY/DOANE

|                                  |                                    |
|----------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Pass us not, O gentle Savior     | Kneeling there in deep contrition  |
| Hear our humble cry              | Help our unbelief                  |
| While on others thou art calling |                                    |
| Do not pass us by                | Trusting only in thy merit         |
|                                  | Would we seek thy face             |
| Savior, O Savior                 | Heal our wounded, broken spirits   |
| Hear our humble cry              | Save us by thy grace               |
| While on others thou art calling |                                    |
| Do not pass us by                | Thou the spring of all our comfort |
|                                  | More than life to me               |
| Let us at thy throne of mercy    | Whom have we on earth beside thee  |
| Find a sweet relief              | Whom in heav'n but thee            |

WELCOME

WATTS/MCCRACKEN

|                                   |                                     |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| No more my God, I boast no more   | My former pride I call my shame     |
| Of all the duties I have done     | And nail my glory to his cross      |
| I quit the hopes I held before    |                                     |
| To trust the merits of thy Son    | Yes, and I must, I will esteem      |
|                                   | All things but loss for Jesus' sake |
| No more my God (no more my God)   | O may my soul be found in him       |
| No more my God (no more my God)   | And of his righteousness partake    |
| No more my God (no more my God)   | Amen, Amen                          |
| I boast no more                   |                                     |
|                                   | The best obedience of my hands      |
| Now, for the loss I bear his name | Dares not appear before thy throne  |
| What was my gain I count my loss  | But faith can answer thy demands    |
|                                   | By pleading what my Lord has done   |

PSALM 24

LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory in the heavens.
Through the praise of children and infants
you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.
When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
what is mankind that you are mindful of them,
human beings that you care for them?
You have made them a little lower than the angels and crowned them with glory and honor.
You made them rulers over the works of your hands;
you put everything under their feet:
all flocks and herds, and the animals of the wild,
the birds in the sky, and the fish in the sea,
all that swim the paths of the seas.
LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

| NEVER ONCE  | REDMAN/INGRAM/WANSTALL                      |
|---|---|
| Standing on this mountaintop  | Never once did we ever walk alone           |
| Looking just how far we've come   | Never once did you leave us on our own      |
| Knowing that for every step you were with us  | You are faithful, God, you are faithful     |
| Kneeling on this battle ground  |   |
| Seeing just how much you've done  | Every step we are breathing in your grace   |
| Knowing every victory is your power in us   | Evermore we'll be breathing out your praise |
|   | You are faithful, God, you are faithful     |
|   | You are faithful, God, you are faithful     |
| Scars and struggles on the way  |   |
| But with joy our hearts can say   |   |
| Yes, our hearts can say   |   |

|---|---------------------------------------|
| Blessed be your name, in the land that is plentiful                     | And blessed be your name              |
| Where your streams of abundance flow                                    | On the road marked with suffering     |
| Blessed be your name  | Though there's pain in the offering   |
| And blessed be your name  | Blessed be your name                  |
| When I'm found in the desert place                                      |                                       |
| Though I walk through the wilderness                                    | Every blessing you pour out, I'll     |
| Blessed be your name  | Turn back to praise                   |
|   | And when the darkness closes in, Lord |
| Every blessing you pour out, I'll                                       | Still I will say                      |
| Turn back to praise   |                                       |
| And when the darkness closes in, Lord                                   | You give and take away                |
| Still I will say  | You give and take away                |
|   | My heart will choose to say           |
| Blessed be the name of the Lord   | Lord, blessed be Your name            |
| Blessed be your name  |                                       |

| Blessed be your glorious name   | You give and take away                |
|   | My heart will choose to say           |
| Blessed be your name  | Lord, blessed be Your name            |

GALATIANS 3:26-29

So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.
